

FAMILY DEVELOPMENT
Military Families Learning Network

NEWSLETTER

August 2019

Upcoming Events

- AUG 20 |
11 AM ET
Nurturing Individual Resilience from a Multisystem Developmental Perspective
with Dr. Ann Masten
- AUG 22 |
11 AM ET
Nurturing Family Resilience Through a Strengths-Based Framework
with Dr. Froma Walsh
- AUG 27 |
11 AM ET
Nurturing Resilience Through a Strong Community with Dr. Michael Ungar

Upcoming Webinars | Resilience Series

MFLN's Family Transitions, Family Development, and Network Literacy are gearing up for our upcoming Resilience Series, which will take place in just a few weeks beginning on August 20 and continuing on August 22 and August 27. Each webinar in the series will begin at 11 AM EST and end at 12:30 PM EST. These webinars will be featuring three top theorists and researchers in the field, Dr. Ann Masten, Dr. Froma Walsh, and Dr. Michael Ungar. Each session will explore the multiple facets of resilience and how it looks in individual, family, and community capacities.

Read more about resources that focus on understanding the concept of resilience and how to apply it when working with clients and families here.

FREE CE Credits Available!

Visit the webinar event pages for more information about continuing education opportunities!

Military Families Learning Network 2019 Virtual Conference!

The Military Families Learning Network 2019 virtual conference, Relationships for Readiness is coming soon! Relationships for Readiness invites service providers and educators to amplify the work and the good they do. Join us to explore what's possible when we connect relationships to readiness!

Register for the Military Families Learning Network virtual conference today!

This groundbreaking webinar series brings together three pre-eminent resilience theorists and researchers to share insight on addressing barriers, identifying various systems and promoting protective factors to support individual, family and community resilience.

Click here to visit the series homepage!

Anchored. Episode 18 | An Overview of the Thrive Initiative

Each Anchored episode highlights real-life struggles that many families encounter and practical solutions to promote resilience. We invite you to sit back, relax and get Anchored. with us!

In this episode, Clearinghouse for Military Family Readiness representatives Terri Rudy and Ryan Chesnut join us to explore the parenting programs that are available within the Thrive Initiative, including the online learning modules available at no cost!

Each Anchored episode highlights real-life struggles that many families encounter and practical solutions to promote resilience. We invite you to sit back, relax and get Anchored. with us!

Listen to the episode today on iTunes or click here to listen on our website!

Get connected!   