

Mark Your Calendar!
New Year, New SBCY Session

Preventing the Onset of Youth Problem Sexual Behaviors

Thursday, February 24, 2021 | 11 AM - 12:30 PM ET

This session will demonstrate how Responsible Behavior with Younger Children (RBYC), a school-based prevention program from Johns Hopkins Moore Center for the Prevention of Child Sexual Abuse, might be used to prevent problematic sexual behavior directed towards younger children and peers.

Presented by: Amanda Ruzicka, M.A. – Senior Research Associate in the Department of Mental Health and the Director of Research Operations at the Moore Center for the Prevention of Child Sexual Abuse, and Luciana Assini-Meytin, Ph.D. – Assistant Scientist at the Moore Center for the Prevention of Child Sexual Abuse at the Johns, Hopkins Bloomberg School of Public Health, Department of Mental Health

RSVP on the event page at militaryfamilieslearningnetwork.org/event/116599 to join the live webinar!

Past webinars are available for replay! Find a list of all series programming on the SBCY homepage at militaryfamilieslearningnetwork.org/childsexualbehavior.

Sit Back, Relax, and Get Anchored with Us!

Thank you for tuning in to our Anchored podcast these last 4 years! Our traditional Anchored series is coming to an end, but we invite you to get Anchored with us for a final time with our newest episodes with friends from the Traumatic Brain Injury Center of Excellence and Sesame Street in Communities!

Follow

twitter.com/MFLNFD

Like

facebook.com/MilitaryFamilies

Subscribe

youtube.com/user/MilFamLN

Upcoming Military Families Readiness Academy| Family Well-Being: Navigating the Social Justice Landscape

Our 2022 MFRA asynchronous courses will focus on individuals' understanding of social justice and equity, including their understanding of privilege and oppression.

Courses and discussions will equip military family service providers to identify barriers that impact a family's health and well-being and to understand their role as frontline social justice advocates. The Academy will address the intersections between engaging a social justice mindset as a family service professional and the ability to support the well-being of diverse military families. Asynchronous delivery will allow working professionals to benefit from the content in the courses at times convenient to their schedules.

Sign up for the Academy mailing list at militaryfamilieslearningnetwork.org/mfra/socialjustice to stay tuned and to receive updates and announcements in the coming months!

Watch and Earn CE Credits!

If you miss our live webinar, a recording of the session will be available on the event page 24 hours after the webinar has concluded. CE credit opportunities will still be available for those viewing the webinar replay!

Juvenile Justice Responses to Youth in Conflict with the Law| This session provides an introduction to the juvenile justice system and the juvenile court. Information regarding processing juvenile cases, court hearings, roles and responsibilities, restoration and rehabilitation for juveniles, and diversion programming for youth is presented. Visit the event page at militaryfamilieslearningnetwork.org/event/101310 to watch the session!

Interactive Self-Care Workshop for Military & Veteran TBI Caregivers| Families and friends play a critical role in supporting the health and well-being of individuals with TBI. This webinar provides education and insight into TBI caregiver resources, common concerns, self-care strategies, current research and identify best practices to improve caregiver quality of life. Watch now at militaryfamilieslearningnetwork.org/event/107309!

See more upcoming and recently archived webinars at militaryfamilieslearningnetwork.org/allevnts/