

New Year, New Opportunities to Learn and Grow with Us!

Greetings from our MFLN Family Development team,

We hope the first month of the new year has been successful and productive! And even if January has been challenging or overwhelming for you, each day brings a new opportunity to learn and grow. We hope you will continue to join us this year for upcoming webinars, blogs, and other new opportunities for continued education and skill growth!

Our MFLN FD webinars offer CE credits from the UT Austin Steve Hicks School of Social Work, the National Council on Family Relations, and the Commission for Case Manager Certification. Certificates of attendance are available for providers, educators, and students interested in documenting their professional development hours!

Mark your planners for our live Family Development sessions below!

Visit the event page to RSVP for upcoming sessions you would like to attend live. If you can't make the live webinar, live sessions are recorded and archived for later viewing.*

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 24 | 11 AM - 12:30 PM ET

Preventing the Onset of Youth Problem Sexual Behaviors

Researchers from the Moore Center for the Prevention of Child Sexual Abuse at the Johns Hopkins Bloomberg School of Public Health join us for the next webinar in our SBCY series! This session demonstrates how a school-based universal prevention program called Responsible Behavior with Younger Children (RBYC) might be used to prevent PSB directed towards younger children and also peers.

THURSDAY, MARCH 17 | 11 AM - 12 PM ET

Brain Health: Understanding Military-Related TBIs (Part 1 of 2)

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 30 | 11 AM - 12 PM ET

Support for Reintegration after TBI: Strategies For Advocates, Care

Coordinators, and Case Managers (Part 2 of 2)

The impacts of traumatic brain injury are felt within each branch of the service, and by each individual and their family members. For March, we welcome Regional Education Coordinators from the Traumatic Brain Injury Center of Excellence (TBICoE). These sessions will explore current DoD understanding of concussion (including causes, signs, and symptoms) and the impact of concussion on service members, their unit, mission, and families.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 23 | 11 AM - 12:30 PM ET

Creating Equity During Family Visits

This will be the first session in the Going Virtual series engaging participants in reflective thinking around how personal beliefs and experiences shape their expectations for interactions with families and behaviors in virtual settings. Discussion includes strategies to work with families in ways that build caregivers' capacities while honoring family identity and culture. This webinar is from the MFLN FD Early Intervention team. Visit the event page to see CE options!*
