

Food Security Resource Guide

This guide is intended to be a resource for service providers working with families experiencing food insecurity. Use the space below to list local contacts for agencies that can provide support to families in need. Moreover, use this exercise as an opportunity to expand your thinking about the programs and services available to families in your community. Consider other services that may not fall into one of the categories provided, and make this document fit the needs of the unique population you serve.

Table of Contents

PAGE 2: Immediate Assistance

PAGE 3: Community-Based Providers

PAGE 4: Public Nutrition Assistance Programs

PAGE 5: Individual and Family Programs and Services

PAGE 6: Community Education Services

Visit the Academy webpage!
OneOp.org/MFRA/FoodSecurity

Immediate Assistance

(E.g., Military and Family Support Centers, Feeding America search tool, USO search tool, food pantries, non-profit and faith-based distribution)

On Installation

Off Installation

Community-Based Providers

(E.g., Meals on Wheels, health and clinical nutrition service providers)

On Installation

NOTE: Nutrition professionals may be available at the operational unit level, in addition to nutrition professionals at medical facilities.

Off Installation

Public Nutrition Assistance Programs

(E.g., WIC, SNAP, Summer Meals Programs, and school meal programs)

On Installation

Off Installation

Individual and Family Programs and Services

(E.g., Family Supplemental Subsistence Allowance, MySECO, school-provided meal programs, farmer's market programs, military move and transition services)

On Installation

Off Installation

Community Education Services

(E.g., Cooperative Extension, SNAP-Ed, Office of Financial Readiness, nonprofits, coalitions, personal finance education, wellness centers)

On Installation

Off Installation