

Learn how to help military families navigate the terrain of economic security.

ON-DEMAND COURSE

Foundations for Military Family Financial Readiness

This foundational course will provide an overview of the impacts of financial readiness on military family well-being. Emphasis will be placed on understanding the financial foundations of economic security, including social and economic drivers required to reach and sustain improved quality of life among military families. Consideration will be given to the unique challenges military families face, especially across times of transition, such as joining the military, deployment, permanent change of station (PCS), and navigating major life events. Resources for assisting Service members and their families across these domains will be provided.

Course Authors:

Jenny Rea, Ph.D.

Assistant Professor of Practice
College of Applied Science and Technology
University of Arizona

Nichole Huff, Ph.D.

Assistant Extension Professor
School of Human Environmental Sciences
University of Kentucky

Continuing Education:

OneOp is applying for continuing education credits from the following professional organizations:

- American Association for Family and Consumer Sciences
- Association for Financial Counseling and Planning Education
- Center for Financial Certifications
- Commission for Case Manager Certification
- Commission on Dietetic Registration
- National Council on Family Relations
- The Patient Advocate Certification Board
- The Society for Human Resource Management
- University of Texas at Austin, Steve Hicks School of Social Work

Certificates of Attendances are also available.

COMING
AUGUST 2024

Learn more!

1.5 Continuing Education Credits available.

This material is based upon work supported by the National Institute of Food and Agriculture, U.S. Department of Agriculture, and the Office of Military Family Readiness Policy, U.S. Department of Defense under Award Number 2019-48770-30366 and 2023-48770-41333.

OneOp
Readiness. Knowledge. Network.