

Coping Compass: Working in the Wake of School & Community Violence & Disaster

ABOUT THIS WEBINAR:

This webinar is designed to equip professionals who work with middle and high school students from military families with the skills and knowledge necessary to support students and communities affected by traumatic events (e.g., school/community violence, natural disasters). This informative and interactive session focuses on understanding trauma responses, implementing effective communication strategies, creating supportive environments, recognizing signs of trauma in students, and fostering resilience.

EVENT PAGE:

<https://oneop.org/learn/160059/>

CONTINUING EDUCATION:

- Certified Family Life Educators: This webinar is pending approval for 1.5 continuing education (CE) credits from the National Council on Family Relations (NCFR).
- Family & Consumer Sciences Professionals: This webinar is pending approval for 1.5 continuing education (CE) credits from the American Association for Family and Consumer Sciences (AAFCS).
- Social Workers, Licensed Professional Counselors, and Licensed Marriage and Family Therapists: This webinar is pending approval for 1.5 continuing education (CE) credits from the University of Texas at Austin, Steve Hicks School of Social Work.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

In this webinar we will:

1. Understand the psychological and emotional impact of trauma on students and identify its signs and symptoms.
2. Learn effective communication techniques and strategies to create safe and supportive environments.
3. How to implement practices that foster resilience and recovery in the school community.

PRESENTER:

Michael Rovaris, LCSW

Asst. Professor, Georgetown University Medical School